Terms & Conditions and Store Policies

Version: 1.0

Effective Date: 1 October 2026

Practice Document: This document is fictional content created for demonstration and AI/RAG development purposes. It is not legal advice and should not be treated as the actual terms of a real business.

1. About Plant Lover

Plant Lover is an online plant and gardening store offering indoor plants, outdoor plants, pots, planters, gardening accessories, soil products, fertilisers and related products.

By using the Plant Lover application or website, creating an account, or placing an order, you agree to comply with these Terms & Conditions.

If you do not agree with these terms, please do not use the Plant Lover service.

2. Account and User Responsibilities

Customers may create an account to browse products, place orders, manage purchases and access their order history.

You are responsible for:

- Providing accurate account and delivery information.
- Keeping your password and account credentials secure.
- Not sharing your account credentials with other people.
- Not using the application for unlawful activities.
- Informing Plant Lover if you believe your account has been accessed without permission.

Plant Lover may suspend or terminate an account if there is evidence of fraudulent, abusive or unlawful activity.

3. Products and Product Information

Plant Lover makes reasonable efforts to ensure that product descriptions, images, prices and availability are accurate.

However, plants are living products and may naturally vary in:

- Size
- Shape
- Colour
- Leaf appearance
- Growth pattern
- Number of leaves

The plant received may therefore differ slightly from the product image.

Product availability may change without notice.

If an ordered product becomes unavailable, Plant Lover may contact the customer to offer an alternative product, refund the unavailable item, or cancel the affected order.

4. Pricing and Payment

All prices displayed in the Plant Lover application are in Australian dollars (AUD).

Prices may change at any time before an order is confirmed.

The final price displayed during checkout is the amount charged to the customer.

Plant Lover may support payment methods including:

- Credit cards
- Debit cards
- Digital payment services
- Other payment methods displayed during checkout

Payment information is processed through approved payment providers. Plant Lover does not intentionally store complete credit card numbers or card security codes.

5. Orders

After an order is submitted, customers will receive an order confirmation.

An order confirmation does not necessarily guarantee that the order can be fulfilled.

Plant Lover may cancel an order if:

- The product is unavailable.
- The listed price was incorrect.
- There is suspected fraudulent activity.
- The delivery address cannot be serviced.
- A payment cannot be successfully processed.

If Plant Lover cancels an order after payment has been received, the customer will generally receive a refund for the cancelled order.

6. Delivery Policy

Plant Lover delivers orders to eligible Australian delivery addresses.

Delivery availability and estimated delivery times are displayed during checkout.

Estimated delivery times are not guaranteed and may be affected by:

- Courier delays
- Severe weather
- Public holidays
- Incorrect delivery information
- High demand
- Events outside Plant Lover's reasonable control

Customers are responsible for providing a correct and complete delivery address.

If an order cannot be delivered because the customer provided an incorrect address, additional delivery charges may apply.

7. Plant Delivery

Plants require special handling during transportation.

Customers should inspect delivered plants as soon as possible after delivery.

Minor changes in appearance caused by transportation may occur. For example, a plant may have slightly bent leaves or minor leaf movement after transportation.

Customers should follow the care instructions supplied with the plant.

If a plant arrives severely damaged, customers should contact Plant Lover as soon as possible and provide photographs of the plant and packaging.

8. Returns Policy

Customers may request a return for eligible non-living products within 14 days of receiving the order.

Returned products should generally:

- Be unused.
- Be in reasonable original condition.
- Include original packaging where practical.
- Include proof of purchase.

Certain products may not be eligible for return because of their nature, hygiene considerations or other applicable restrictions.

Because plants are living products, plant returns may be subject to different conditions.

Customers should contact Plant Lover before sending any product back.

9. Damaged or Incorrect Products

If a customer receives:

- The wrong product
- A damaged product
- A significantly defective product
- A plant that arrives in an unusable condition

the customer should contact Plant Lover as soon as reasonably possible.

The customer may be asked to provide:

- Order number
- Product name
- Photographs
- Description of the problem
- Photographs of the packaging where relevant

Plant Lover will assess the issue and may offer a replacement, refund or another appropriate resolution.

10. Refund Policy

Approved refunds will generally be returned using the original payment method where possible.

Refund processing time may depend on the payment provider or financial institution.

A refund may be available when:

- Plant Lover cancels an order.
- A product is confirmed to be defective.
- An incorrect product was delivered.
- A return is approved.
- A product cannot be supplied after payment has been received.

Refund eligibility may depend on the circumstances of the order.

Shipping charges may not always be refundable.

11. Cancellation Policy

Customers may request cancellation before an order has been dispatched.

Once an order has been dispatched, cancellation may no longer be possible.

If cancellation is accepted before dispatch, Plant Lover will generally process a refund for the cancelled items.

Customers should contact Plant Lover as soon as possible if they need to cancel an order.

12. Privacy Policy

Plant Lover may collect information required to provide its services, including:

- Name
- Email address
- Delivery address
- Contact details

- Order information
- Account information
- Payment-related transaction information

Plant Lover uses customer information to:

- Process orders.
- Deliver products.
- Provide customer support.
- Manage accounts.
- Improve services.
- Detect fraud and security issues.

Plant Lover does not intentionally sell customer personal information to third parties.

Information may be shared with service providers when necessary to provide services, such as payment processing, delivery and technology services.

13. Data Security

Plant Lover takes reasonable measures to protect customer information.

Security measures may include:

- HTTPS/TLS encryption for network communication.
- Secure password storage.
- Authentication and authorization controls.
- Access restrictions.
- Security monitoring.
- Regular software updates.
- Secure payment processing through payment providers.

Customers should also protect their own accounts by using strong passwords and avoiding sharing authentication credentials.

No online service can guarantee that information transmitted over the internet will be completely secure.

14. Application Security

Plant Lover may use authentication tokens to maintain authenticated sessions.

Access to protected resources should require appropriate authorization.

Users must not attempt to:

- Access another customer's account.
- Access restricted APIs without authorization.
- Circumvent application security controls.
- Modify or delete another user's data.
- Perform automated attacks against the application.
- Introduce malicious software or code.

Suspected security vulnerabilities should be reported to Plant Lover rather than exploited.

15. Personal Information and Account Deletion

Customers may request deletion of their Plant Lover account.

Account deletion may be subject to legal, financial or operational requirements that require certain information to be retained for a period of time.

Deleting an account may result in loss of access to:

- Order history
- Saved information
- Account preferences
- Other account-specific features

16. Intellectual Property

Plant Lover's application, branding, logos, software, content and original materials are protected by applicable intellectual property laws.

Customers may use the Plant Lover application for personal and legitimate purposes.

Customers must not copy, modify, distribute, reverse engineer or commercially exploit Plant Lover content without appropriate authorization.

17. Prohibited Activities

Users must not use Plant Lover to:

- Commit fraud.
- Attempt unauthorized access.
- Interfere with the operation of the application.
- Upload malicious software.
- Abuse other customers.
- Submit false information.
- Circumvent payment systems.
- Attempt to access another user's personal information.

Plant Lover may suspend accounts involved in prohibited activities.

18. Service Availability

Plant Lover aims to provide reliable access to its application and services.

However, temporary interruptions may occur because of:

- Maintenance
- Software updates
- Infrastructure failures
- Network problems
- Security incidents
- Third-party service outages
- Events outside Plant Lover's reasonable control

Plant Lover does not guarantee that the application will always be available or error-free.

19. Customer Support

Customers can contact Plant Lover customer support regarding:

- Orders
- Delivery
- Returns
- Refunds
- Damaged products
- Account issues
- Product information
- Security concerns

When contacting support about an order, customers should provide their order number where possible.

20. Changes to These Terms

Plant Lover may update these Terms & Conditions from time to time.

When significant changes are made, Plant Lover may provide an appropriate notice through the application or other communication channels.

The updated version will apply from its stated effective date.

21. Limitation of Liability

Plant Lover will take reasonable steps to provide its products and services as described.

To the extent permitted by applicable law, Plant Lover is not responsible for losses caused by circumstances outside its reasonable control, including delivery delays, third-party service interruptions or events beyond its control.

Nothing in these Terms is intended to exclude rights or protections that cannot legally be excluded.

22. Australian Consumer Law

Nothing in these Terms is intended to remove or restrict any rights that customers may have under applicable Australian consumer protection laws.

Where applicable, customers may have consumer guarantees relating to products and services.

If a product does not meet an applicable consumer guarantee, customers may have rights to a remedy depending on the circumstances.

23. Governing Law

These Terms are intended to be interpreted in accordance with the laws applicable in Australia.

Any disputes will be handled in accordance with applicable Australian laws and regulations.
